SANTILLANA DEL MAR

Price per person: 22,00 Euros (Minimum number of participants: 45)

Since the first prehistoric settlements, to the stately peak and through times of great ecclesiastical strength, Santillana del Mar has been acquiring an incomparable monumental legacy of art and culture.

The excellent preservation of its houses, its collegiate church and its many palaces, immerse us during our visit to a distant time.

Its unbeatable location and the beautiful natural environment which surrounds it, makes Santillana a close place to get to and at the same time, it’s a place away from it all in which to escape and enjoy the scenery, its people, its history or its great cultural agenda.

But not all is spent in Santillana del Mar. The village has continued to evolve which has led it to the present day with its fervent cultural activity, making it one of the cultural references of, Cantabria and the rest of the country. A town open to all, every day and every hour of the year, a present day modern town full of, leisure, art, and tourism prepared for a promising future...
